

Scale How,
Ambleside.

28 Feb. 21-

Dearests

How you are working for the dear R.N.W.! Don't kill yourself as what should we do!-

Yes. The 21st will suit us very well indeed but 2 days do not suit.
Can't you possibly do more for us?

I am ~~wed~~ that the
dear Rachel's notes have not reached you - I struggled with them a bit & gave the task of reading them up as impossible - I expect they were written in all sorts of impossible places -
I am relieving them.

I do hope the Irish Mags will come off - they are

Scale How,
Ambleside.

important. We have lost a friend in J. Clarke but perhaps his success may tell us.

After a month's flowing weather we have thought fit to have our half term holiday on this cold drizzling day! Is it it provoking - but -

The dear people are scattered over the country side & will come back full of joy. What it is to be young!

We are all looking forward to your coming.
much love M.

21 i6p1pneu22
Scale How,
Ambleside.

Harsh & (2)

My dearest.

A fortnight - today you will be here - how delightful!

Like T. G. Browne's "Blackbird", "How you do go it!" Of course I am a little anxious, but just ever so glad - we seem to be alive to our rings tips! I know just to get - R. + Mrs. Cosley write into active cooperation.

libp2 pneu22

I send you Mr. Benson's letter. please send it back.

I have asked him if he could not - get Mr. H. M. Storr to launch a similar meeting and maybe have some effect on the Masters.

I'm afraid it is useless to buy + get him (Mr. B. / Mr Northampton. he could hardly take it on his own town - but if you think otherwise write to his house ibp3pneu22

Scale Hotel,
Ambleside.

Address. They are due to visit on.

I long for you to tell me about all those big meetings.
It is simply splendid.

We too are full of work of sorts. For instance this morning before we were up a capital kitchen maid packed her little case & went off to some other place - but we shall enjoy it.
But I must not - send 16 p4 pneu 22

any more ever A. M. news.
So I shall see you soon.
Could you not possibly stay a couple of days longer?

By the way Mr. T's paper is quite new. Founded on his visit to the Floss. Schools.
He refers to my having read it over.

How good that Mr. Gould Mr. have spoken so well.

She has a pleasing & convincing manner -
dear love
C.M.

17 pl pneu. 22

Scale How,
Ambleside.

my mother & letters
 could be your a friend
 Dear Sir!
 I am getting excited about your shabby little visit - how good it will be to see you & talk sisters.

I am full of admiration of the great things you are doing - Yours truly Chas. Webb.

seem so vital nowadays - by the way, I was glad to see if Aberdeen had attended the last.

& then, what a membership you have!

All goes well her skin is Parish is giving her position quite beautifully - but I rather fear she is finding the work a strain.

i8pl pneu22

Scale Hotel,
Ambleside.

happy with us. She seems to love her work. at the office to be much

happy with May 14

my dear Lady!

your letter of 13th inst.
has been received.

Paris. we must attend to the affairs in the City.

But what a brilliant

Conference Programme! A thousand congratulations though I am afraid that as far as our special teaching is concerned it will be a case of "She has the musical glasses" have a Belgium
your policy of sending only one in our whole country

But no doubt many words of wisdom will be dropped. What is always to the good. Mr. Anson exercises me?

Will you have Shortland reports of those papers that we may not hope for?

He will let you Miss Morton thoroughly - & she made herself quite